Wellness vs Well-being

Wellness

Global Wellness Institute:

“the active pursuit of activities, choices, and lifestyles that lead to a state of holistic health.”

Wellness is an individual pursuit—we have self-responsibility for our own choices, behaviors, and lifestyles—but it is also significantly influenced by the physical, social, and cultural environments in which we live.

Well-being

World Health Organization:

“positive state experienced by individuals and societies.”

Well-being encompasses quality of life, as well as the ability of people and societies to contribute to the world in accordance with a sense of meaning and purpose.

Workplace Wellness Programs: Stats

Efficacy of programs: data is mixed

- 60% of US employees are aware this exists at their company
- 40% of those employees participate in it
- Depends on quality, details, and underlying organizational culture

“For employers, the costs of poor employee wellbeing go far beyond insurance -- they ultimately impact employee engagement, productivity and performance”

13

Academia

2018:

- Wellness Committee Formed

2018-2019:

- Survey faculty and students using validated tools

2019-2022:

- Standing college committee

2022-present:

- Committee across 2 campuses with faculty co-chairs and student-appointed representatives

Wellness Committee Goals

Establish a baseline measurement of wellness

Identify areas of concern

Develop actionable items and recommendations for implementation

14

Academia Wellness Activities

Coffee "happy hours"

- BYOD (bring your own drink) and meet up between 8:30-9:30am

Walk meet-ups

- Choose a date/time for midday walk, send calendar invite

Lunch hour discussions

- Email management, meditation

Let's go to lunch together

- Choose a date/time, send calendar invite, everyone meet in a classroom

Binge-watch and Book Recommendations

- Create shared documents and everyone adds to it

15

Virtual Wellness Initiatives

- Utilize intranet for mental health resources
- Implement virtual meeting check-ins
- Engage with breakout rooms, polls, and word clouds
- Organize virtual social events and happy hours
- Participate in fitness or reading challenges
- Create focus pockets by silencing notifications
- Join Employee Resource Groups (ERGs) or affinity groups
- Take screen breaks

16

Health-System Contribution

Goal: To establish a well-organized committee to plan wellness initiatives for pharmacy residents and non-resident employees.

- Worked with coach to brainstorm and firm up an outline of the committee
- Wellness Committee structure
 - 2 co-chairs
 - 1 executive leadership
 - 1 representative from each specialty
 - 1 meeting a month
 - 1-2 volunteers for planning 1 wellness activity per month
 - Resources: Departmental budget for employee engagement

17

Wellness Activities—academic medical center

- Pharmacy Department Wellness Committee
- Wellness Minute at Town Hall meetings (monthly for all staff)
- Action for Happiness Calendar sent to all staff monthly
- Holiday activities

WELLNESS MINUTE—Self Care Sept 24

SELF CARE

Awakening to the needs of your own life

Self Care isn't selfish

"The time to relax is when you don't have time for it." - Sydney J. Harris

"Strive for progress, not perfection." - Unknown

"Do not let the behavior of others destroy your inner peace." - Dalai Lama

Self Care Activities

- Get go of self-criticism, speak to yourself kindly, forgive yourself when things go wrong, aim to be good enough—not perfect; choose to see your mistakes as steps to help you learn.
- Plan a fun/relaxing activity and make time for it; give yourself permission to say no; get outside and give your mind and body a needed boost; make time to breathe and be with people you love.
- Accept yourself; let go of other's expectations; don't compare how you feel inside to how others appear outside; don't compare; be willing to share how you feel and ask for help when needed; ask for help.

Why Self-care is essential

- Recharges our Batteries: Just as we plug in our phones to charge, our minds and bodies need time to recharge too.
- Boosts our Mood and Mental Health: Taking time to relax, reflect, and rejuvenate can significantly decrease feelings of stress and anxiety.
- Increases Productivity and Creativity: When we're well-rested and stress-free, our brains work more efficiently.
- Improves Physical Health: Chronic, unhealthy stress can contribute to numerous physical ailments, from headaches to heart disease. Self-care can help in reducing these risks.

Remind yourself that YOU ARE ENOUGH, just as you are.

Notice things you do well

It's OK to not be OK

Find a caring, calming phrase to use when feeling low

Find a new way to use a strength or skill

Wellness Minutes are at monthly Town Hall all staff meetings

Program Spotlight

Article in Rush News
June 2025

"Everyone needs an outlet during stressful times," said clinical pharmacy specialist Jenna Crosby. "Having that one thing, no matter how small, goes a long way to create connection in a department as large as ours."

Gatherings blend fun with the practical. While some months may include a photography competition, achievement recognitions or a puzzle board exchange, others may feature wellness-related conversations or therapeutic escapes such as aromatherapy.

Each event strives to bring together different groups of staff, which creates opportunities for new friendships to form across the team. This builds a strong support network of connections and fosters a collaborative work environment.

"We're a creative group that is dedicated to promoting wellness and burnout prevention within the pharmacy," Crosby said. "That commitment to the team is valuable because so many show up to our events. It's great to see how focusing on our wellbeing is making such a positive impact on our team over the year."

Connections Build Wellness Culture in the Pharmacy
Holiday door decorations, Pharmacy Week celebrations, weekend volunteering and gratitude trees are more than enjoyable activities. They are events that bring together inpatient pharmacy staff to build relationships and unwind throughout the year.

Organized by the department's wellness committee and volunteers, team members gather every other month to focus on a creative project or community service. Read more.

LEVEL UPI 2025 ICHP ANNUAL MEETING

29

We talk about WELLNESS.
Wellness is a priority.
Wellness is tied to engagement.

30

Outline a personalized plan to support wellness among team members, including residents and trainees.

31

Personalized Team Wellness Plan

Becoming a Wellness Ambassador supporting residents and employees

Goal: Develop a personalized plan to support team wellness.

Focus: Empower you to become a Wellness Ambassador.

Outcome: Leave with at least one concrete action step.

Audience: For all team members, especially focusing on residents and students

32

What is a Wellness Ambassador?

Someone who actively promotes and supports well-being.

Inspires, educates, and advocates for a healthier work environment.

You don't need to be an expert, just a champion!

33

Part 1: The WHY

- Why does team wellness matter to you?
- How does team well-being impact patient care, and work culture?

34

Part 2: Assessing Your Current Landscape

- What does "wellness" currently look like for your team?
 - Consider physical, emotional, social, intellectual, professional well-being.
- Strengths:
 - What's working well?
 - What existing support systems are effective?
- Challenges:
 - What are the biggest hurdles or areas of improvement?

35

Part 3: Identifying Key Areas for Intervention

- Identify the top 2-3 critical areas:
 - Based on your assessment, what are the most crucial areas to address?
 - Why a Priority?
 - Briefly explain the impact each area has on your team.
- Examples:
- ☐ Improving mental health access
 - ☐ Fostering peer support
 - ☐ Promoting healthy boundaries
 - ☐ Enhancing recognition
 - ☐ Social bonding time outside of work
 - ☐ Start a wellness committee

36

Part 4: Brainstorming Solutions & Strategies

Generating Ideas for Action

- For each of your 2-3 priority areas, brainstorm 2-3 potential solutions or strategies.
- Think broadly – big or small, formal or informal.

Circle/Star the solutions that are the most impactful and most feasible

37

Part 5: Identify Your Support System

Before you act, think about who can help you succeed.

- Mentors: Who can offer guidance and a long-term perspective?
- Supporters: Who are your allies and peers for encouragement and accountability?
- Executive Leaders: Who holds institutional influence to help with larger initiatives?

38

List one concrete action step to becoming a wellness ambassador.

39

Part 6: My Action Plan

My Commitment: ONE Concrete Action Step

- Reflect: On all we've discussed.
- Commit: To ONE concrete action step you will take within the next two weeks to become a wellness ambassador for your team.

Moving Forward After the Conference

- Share: Your action step with an accountability partner or small group.
- Follow-Up: Consider scheduling a check-in with your group or a mentor.

Remember: Even small actions can create significant positive change for team wellness

Self-Assessment Question 1

According to the data presented in the literature reviewed today, what percentage of pharmacy professionals report burnout?

- A. < 25%
- B. > 50%
- C. > 75%
- D. 100%

42

Self-Assessment Question 2

Which of the following is an example wellness activity that can be easily incorporated into a department of pharmacy?

- A. Annual salary bonuses
- B. Chair massages at every staff meeting
- C. Gratitude board activity
- D. Free daily lunch

44

Self-Assessment Question 3

What is one step you could take to become a wellness champion in your department?

- A. Request time off to work on wellness activities
- B. Find like-minded colleagues to brainstorm ideas
- C. Become certified in yoga so you can offer classes
- D. Create activities that you and your friends enjoy most

46

Key Takeaways

Wellness in pharmacy is evolving AND we need to evolve with it.

- Pharmacy professionals are experiencing rising rates of burnout, yet wellness practices have also expanded in response. Understanding current trends and data helps us adapt and advocate for meaningful change.

Promoting wellness requires context AND creativity.

- Effective wellness strategies differ across settings. By exploring approaches from both academia and academic medical centers, we gain practical, adaptable tools to foster well-being in diverse pharmacy environments.

You have the power to lead: ONE step at a time.

- You don't need a formal title to be a wellness ambassador. With one personalized action step and a commitment to supporting others, you can help create a healthier, more empowered culture for your team and trainees.
